Jesus heals the blind man

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been born blind. <sup>2</sup> His disciples asked him, "Teacher, whose sin caused him to be born blind? Was it his own or his parents' sin?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "His blindness has nothing to do with his sins or his parents' sins. He is blind so that God's power might be seen at work in him. <sup>4</sup> As long as it is day, we must do the work of him who sent me; night is coming when no one can work. <sup>5</sup> While I am in the world, I am the light for the world."

<sup>6</sup> After he said this, Jesus spat on the ground and made some mud with the spittle; he rubbed the mud on the man's eyes <sup>7</sup> and told him, "Go and wash your face in the Pool of Siloam." (This name means "Sent.") So the man went, washed his face, and came back seeing.

<sup>8</sup> His neighbors, then, and the people who had seen him begging before this, asked, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?"

<sup>9</sup> Some said, "He is the one," but others said, "No he isn't; he just looks like him."

So the man himself said, "I am the man."

<sup>10</sup> "How is it that you can now see?" they asked him.

<sup>11</sup> He answered, "The man called Jesus made some mud, rubbed it on my eyes, and told me to go to Siloam and wash my face. So I went, and as soon as I washed, I could see."

<sup>12</sup> "Where is he?" they asked.

"I don't know," he answered.

<sup>13</sup> Then they took to the Pharisees the man who had been blind. <sup>14</sup> The day that Jesus made the mud and cured him of his blindness was a Sabbath. <sup>15</sup> The Pharisees, then, asked the man again how he had received his sight. He told them, "He put some mud on my eyes; I washed my face, and now I can see."
